

Medical information or statements made within this site are not intended for use in or as a substitute for the diagnosis or treatment of any health or physical condition or as a substitute for a physician-patient relationship which has been established by an in-person evaluation of a patient. This website does not provide specific medical advice and does not endorse any medical or professional service or services obtained through information provided on this site or any links to or from this site.

This information and advice published or made available through this website is not intended to replace the services of a physician or a health care professional acting under a physician's supervision, nor does it constitute a doctor-patient relationship. Each individual's treatment and/or results may vary based upon the circumstances, the patients' specific situation, as well as the health care provider's medical judgment and only after further discussion of the patient's specific situation, goals, risks and benefits and other relevant medical discussion. Testimonials or statements made by any person(s) within this site are not intended to substitute for this discussion or evaluation or as a guarantee as to outcomes. Examples of treatment outcomes in this websites are not intended to convey and warranty, either express or implied, as to outcomes, promises, or benefits from treatment. Whether to accept any treatment by a patient should be assessed by the patient as to the risks and benefits of such procedures and only after consultation with a health care professional.
